

Legacy of Hope Foundation

Seeds :

A virtual, collaborative workshop series
on Indigenous Food Sovereignty

Thursdays 3:30 – 5:00 PM EST – bi-weekly

From: February 17, 2022 – October 28, 2022

The Legacy of Hope Foundation is seeking the active participation of 3 Indigenous-led community organizations who have a connection with Indigenous youth, who want to learn about and design their own land-based program while connecting with others who are doing the same! The focus for this project is centred around Indigenous youth and food sovereignty. Workshops include expert speakers and support throughout. There will be a $3000 stipend paid out to participating organizations upon completion of the project.

For more information and to apply, please visit:

<https://legacyofhope.ca/english/education/Seedstoo/>

This program is funded and facilitated by the Legacy of Hope Foundation

The Legacy of Hope Foundation is a national Indigenous-led charitable organization that has been working to promote healing and Reconciliation in Canada for over 21 years.